

THROW OFF THE BOWLINES...
MARCH 6, 2012

Looking for a place to get away from it all? Well, you're going to have to race us to book this beachside haven on Victoria's infamous Great Ocean Road. Combining architectural aesthetics of raw concrete, polished timber and rugged terrain with expansive ocean views, Robert Mills' Ocean House manages to exude sophistication and earthy appeal all at once. Getting back to nature never looked so good!

So if you are pining for a sea change, and dreaming of living in an architecturally designed home – now you can have both – for a weekend, a week or a month. With walls of glass for you to drink in the view, both of the ocean and of the bush, a weekend at Ocean House will ensure you can still your mind and recharge your Qi for the busy life that awaits your return. We love the inspiration from Mark Twain to 'Throw off the bowlines, sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover'. Race you...
